Class Overview

Our Mission

American Seekers Academy is a drop off homeschool co-op dedicated to empowering families through a private, in-person Classical education that prioritizes safety and upholds parents' freedom to choose what's best for their child.

About Seekers Class

Seekers Class is designed for 3rd–4th graders (ages 8–10), deepening reading, writing, and critical thinking while building self-governance, character, entrepreneurship, and appreciation for America's founding principles in a warm, mentor-led setting.

Classes meet Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, 9 AM–12 PM, with optional extended learning until 2 PM. Sessions are 10 weeks long and offered three times per year, creating a consistent routine that boosts focus and excitement.

Math and literacy use station-based learning to meet each child's level. Students rotate through targeted activities to build confidence and fluency. Paired reading strengthens decoding, comprehension, and confidence through peer support.

Math follows Dimensions Math (Singapore-inspired). Each child gets a home workbook for practice and a traveling textbook for lessons, so parents can easily follow along and help with homework.

ASA fosters independent thinkers in a positive, social environment combining structured curriculum, liberal arts, hands-on projects and discussions emphasizing responsibility, critical thinking, and free-market ideas.

Tuition

$900 per child for mornings only

$1300 per child for full day

Tuition for the Seekers Class covers one full 10-week session, with classes meeting Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 9 AM to 12 PM.

Fundraisers, "Free After Three," and gift cards are applied toward tuition!
