

American Founding Symbols Coloring Adventure

A fun coloring activity that introduces young students to important symbols and ideas from America's founding period.

Instructions:

Color each part of the picture according to the suggestions or use your own creative colors! As you color, think about what each symbol means for our country.

Coloring Guide:

Liberty Bell:

Color the Liberty Bell brown. This bell rang to announce the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

American Flag:

Color the stripes red and white, and the star section blue with white stars.

Bald Eagle:

Color the eagle's body brown, but make its head and tail white to show it's our national bird!

Constitution:

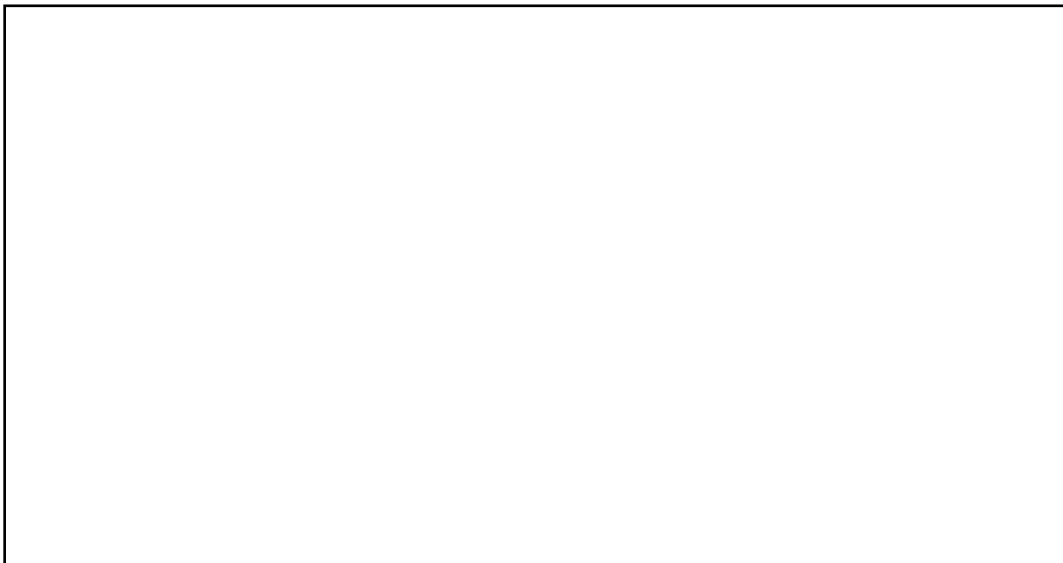

Color the Constitution paper a light yellow or tan to make it look old and important.

Independence Hall:

Color Independence Hall with red bricks and white windows. This is where our country's founders met.

Image Description:

A large outlined drawing showing several American founding symbols arranged in a friendly, cartoon-style scene. The Liberty Bell is in the center, with the American flag waving behind it. To the left is a bald eagle holding an olive branch and arrows. To the right is the Constitution document with 'We the People' visible at the top. At the bottom is a simple outline of Independence Hall.
